Report of future policy of Foreign Mission Board was read and adopted. The report on greatest need of the Board was read, and after some amendments was adopted. It appoints 1st Sunday in July for fasting and prayer. After prayer the Convention adjourned to meet at 8 p. m. Will give night proceedings in my next. There was a Mass Meeting held on Saturday night for the benefit of Home Missions. Several gentlemen spoke, the most successful of whom was Rev. Dr. Fuller, of Baltimore. The Sunday services were lay between Smith and Young, Jones interesting, and largely attended. The having withdrawn in favor of Smith. The congregation at the Baptist church was immense. Rev. Dr. Fuller preached in the morning. I thought his sermon greatly below the standard of true greatness. It was quite inferior to the sermon of Rev. Dr. Winkler, of S. C., or of Rev. Dr. Curry, of Virginia, or of Rev. Dr. Brantley of Baltimore. It was ambitions, delama ler for the pulpit is not to my taste a prepossessing one. He is full of action, and his manner is far more appropriate to the stage than to the sacred desk. Other gentlemen who preached are reported to have

For the Journal. Мт. Нокев Спикси, Мау 5, 1872. At the meeting of the Session of Mt. Horeb Church, the following letter was read: To the Sersion of Ml. Horeb Church : BRETHREN :- It is with profound sorrow we announce to you the death of our esteemed brother, Ilder and friend, N. T. Harriss, which occurred in this city, Tuesday morning, April 23, 1872.

Many of us have known brother Harriss for years; have loted him as a friend and brother in Chirst, and esteemed him as one whose daily walk and conversation proved that there was a truth and power in the religion he pofessed. We have all esteemed him as gman and citizen, one Parsley, Sr. who was above repreach, and upright and honorable in al his affairs. We desire to I testify to his with and piety, and in doing so would tender to the Church over which he ruled, and to the Session of which he was a member, our sincere sympathy in their bereavement. At the same time we would rejetce in the knowledge that he has | & Sons. gone to his reward, and is now with that Saviour in whose service he ever took delight, no more to be assailed by sorrow. temptation and sin. By order of the Session of First Presby-

JAS. D. CUMMING, Clerk. Wilmington, N. C., April 24, 1872.

Whereupon the Session adopted the following resolutions. Resolved, That it is with profound sorrow we hear of the death of our highly esemed and well-beloved Brother, N. T. 600 feet lumber. Harriss, a Ruling Elder in our church, who, ever since he professed faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and connected himself with the church, led an exemplary and christian life. His walk and conversation were such as becometh the Gospel; who, soon after he connected himself with the church, was elected and ordained a Ruling Elder; and as a member of our body, his intercourse with us was always of that high-toned, christian gentleman. As an officer of the church, he was conscientious, withful and efficient. Though he continuel his ecclesiastical relation with us until his leath, for several months past he resided it, his native city, Wilmington. And it is with pleasure we note that the sad tidings of his death sreaccompanied by the endorsement of his character as a christian and citizen by those who enew him so well as the members of the Sesson of the First Presbyterian church, of Wilmington.

Resolved, 2d, That we recognize the hand of God in this Providence, and bow with humble resignation to the will of the importance of laboring faithfully in our Master's cause while it is to-day, that when the night of death cometh, we may render a good account of our stewardship.

Resolved, 3d, That we tender our condolence to his bereaved widow and aged dolence to his bereaved widow and ages mother, and other sorrowing friends, Lucia Murchison, Jone, idg. New 1.7k, villiams & Michison knowing and appreciating the worth of him whom they mourn. We would not bid them dry up their tears, but we rejoice to know that they sorrow not as others Magdelena, Burnsgard, GUERNSEY. who have no hope, for theirs is a glorious hope that our Brother has fallen asleep in sus, and when the Lord cometh He will bring him with Him.

Smith in the Fourth, and Settle in the Fifth, Districts-Disgraceful

RALEIGH, May 15. The Radicals of the Fourth Congressional district met in nominating convention at Franklinton to-day. The scene was an unusually disgracefully one. Major Wm. A. Smith, of Johnston, received the nomination on the fourth ballot. The contest majority for Smith, over Young, was a fraction of one vote. T. M. Argo was nem nated for Elector.

The scenes were of the wildest and most stormy description. Jones and Young had a fight during the Convention and the tory and dramatic. The style of Dr. Ful- greatest excitement was produced. The Convention itself was a perfect Bedlam.

GREENSBORO', May 15. The Radical Congressional Convention for this, the Fifth district, which met here The Convention will probably adjourn to-day, nominated Thomas Settle, for Congress, by acclamation. S. A. Douglass received the nomination of Presidential Elector, and James C. Boyd and Thos. B. Keogh were chosen as delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, with G. M. Arnold (colored) and J. Martin as alternates.

Tuesday the L stock had been greatly reduced by shipments, and the receipts were scarcely of no consideration; buyers were wanting and the market ad vanced 40 cents. Wednesday the previous days' | S quotations was the ruling figure for the small quantity offering sale. To-day the markef has advanced 5 cents. The receipts are very light and the stock is moderately large, but is held by one or two firms who will not relieve the wants of the buyers, but prefer to hold not for shipment, but for purposes of their own. There seems to be a confidence that the market will go higher, at any rate will hold at or near the present prices for some time, as we have heard of sales made for future delivery at advanced rates of siles made for future delivery at advanced rates of siles made for future delivery at advanced rates of siles made for future delivery at advanced rates of siles and for future delivery at advanced rate of siles and for future delivery at advanced rate of siles and for future delivery at advanced rate of siles and for future delivery at advanced rate of siles and for future delivery at advanced rate of siles and for future delivery at advanced rate of siles and for future delivery at a siles and for future delivery at above the present quotation. GRAIN.-Conn.-The demand since the close of our last report has been very heavy, and with only moderate receipts and heavy shipments the stock has become largely reduced, thereby causing a strong feeling in the market, and we report an advance of 7 cents for cargoes and 10 cents from store. Three cargoes have arrived. One, of 2,200 bushels, was disposed of at 33 cents, and one of 2,000 bushels on private terms. The receipts foot up 20,291 bushels, and from all sources are as follows: From Hyde county, 6,226 bushels; from Baltimore, 865 bushels; from New York, 12,000 bushels, and by Wilmington and Welden Railread, 1,200 bushels. The enquiry increases and the stock in store is not over 30,000 bushels, which is very light for this season of the year. Sales are made including sacks .-- OATS .- No change of figures during the week; the stock is fully tair large and the enquiry is only for small quan-
